

July 2011 Approved Grants—Education

American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research

Washington, DC $200,000

To help the nation's top policy makers and researchers work together to identify critical human capital policy lessons learned and future research questions in need of study. (18 mos.)

Education Sector Inc.

Washington, DC $400,000

To promote improvement in teacher policies at the federal, state, and local levels, and to conduct a follow-up survey of teacher attitudes toward recent teacher policy reforms. (2 yrs.)

The Education Trust

Washington, DC $600,000

To advance teacher quality policies by providing research, policy analysis, and strategy support to national civil rights groups, state-level advocacy organizations, and state legislators. (2 yrs.)

EducationCounsel LLC

Washington, DC $180,000

For EducationCounsel and its partners to continue a multi-state collaborative to accelerate state policy reform on teacher and leader effectiveness in Illinois, Indiana, and a few other states. (1 yr.)

Mass Insight Education and Research Institute Inc.

Boston, MA $100,000

To support Illinois, Indiana, and other member states to develop and share promising practices and resources that are focused on addressing chronically low performing schools. (1 yr.)

University of Washington

Seattle, WA 250,000

To continue a multi-city network and series of meetings to help Midwest districts create new school options and overhaul their lowest performing schools. (2 yrs.)

Total Education: $1,730,000